EDITORIALS.

The doctrine of the Sun Boosters is that every Negro should support the race organ by subscribing and paying for it.

Mr. Edwards has Negroes in his employ and has had for thirty years in Kansas City, and they are holding responsible positions.

A rotten system in city management keeps many good business firms away, and without good business the poor man can not hope for steady employment.

The Masonic lodges of the city have been most generous in their donations toward the latest financial campaign of the Associated Charities, thus again exemplifying their professions of charity.

When the present canvass of the Y. M. C. A. for more funds is carried to a successful issue, that organization should take a day off and give the young women a chance to get at what little is left.

The greatest good to the number has always been the Republican most to. Down at the city hall is just the opposite, because the fewer they can serve down there the more "pie" there is left the rabbits.

George H. Edwards is an honest man. He is of the Henry M. Beardsley type of our citizens. He is the type of the Negro not because he is running for office. (Just probably will be our friend until April 4, but then a great change will come).

"I have found in my own business the colored man is as worthy of trust as any white man. I have never had cause to regret the great trust I have always placed in the Negro," Mr. Edwards said. That the Negroes return this trust to this good man will be shown April 4.

In the death of Prof. R. W. Foster Kansas City and the state loses one of its most capable and valuable citizens and educators. Prof. Foster lived the same life that he taught—the life of a Christian gentleman with high ideals and noble purposes. In his interpretations of life he was simple and puritanic, disdaining anything below the level of strict manhood. He was brave, positive, safe and absolutely dependable in all the relations of his life, and he always stood by his convictions, regardless of his popularity or unpopularity. Scarcely a public movement for the good of the race has been launched in this city during the last thirty years that has lacked his most enthusiastic support and his favor has been sought because of his rare discernment and fine judgment. In these respects and many others he has left an imperishable imprint upon the community life of our people in the city and as an educator he has pioneered as well as developed his share in the present excellent work of our schools.

Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

—That it doesn't always pay to say what's on your mind.

—That many a home has been wrecked by a "bosom" friend.

—That every girl who looks like a peach may not be a peach. She may be a lemon.

—That a preacher with a whisky breath is a darn poor disciple for Jesus Christ.

—That whatever buffet flats you frequent somebody knows it if it's only the landlady, and she'll talk sometimes.

—That a young lady who received a cake of Cashmere bouquet soap, a wash rag and a box of talcum thru the mail is awfully angry. Why?

—That the beautiful hand painted case in the window at the Peoples' drug store will be given away April 5 at Lyric hall by the Phyllis Wheatley Art club.

—That a wise guy answered an advertisement in a Chicago paper which said: "Send us 25 cents and we will send you an infallible cigar lighter." He sent, and in return received a box of safety matches. Wise, wasn't he?

—That only recently a white mail carrier was named as co-respondent in a Negro divorce case and now a measly insurance collector is being threatened with the same notoriety. What poor taste some Negro women have.

What promises to be one of the best Masonic lodges in the Missouri jurisdiction was organized at Maryville, Mo., last Thursday night by Grand Master Nelson C. Crews, assisted by Special Deputy M. O. Rickerts of St. Joseph and A. D. Butler, Prof. F. L. McGee, Moses Lawrie, Jas. Green, Speck Green and Chas. Phelps of St. Joseph; W. W. Fields, relief secretary at Cameron, and George W. K. Love, Grand Secretary; E. G. Lacey, T. G. McCampbell, Richard Fullbright of Kansas City.

The delegation was met at the station by a number of motor cars and escorted to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smart, where dinner was served. Mrs. Victoria Clay Haley, Royal Grand Matron of St. Louis, and Mrs. Kate Wilson, special deputy of Omaha, had also arrived in the city for the purpose of organizing a new chapter and from 3 to 6 an elegant reception was tendered the visitors at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Smart, which was attended by the representative people of the city. Mrs. Allen and Miss Allen presided at the piano during the afternoon, and Mrs. Wilson and Malcolm at the punch bowl, while Mrs. Palmer and Cookey and other ladies served the cream and cake. In the evening a public meeting was held at the Mt. Zion Baptist church where addresses were delivered by Dr. Rickerts, Mrs. Haley, Mrs. Wilson, T. G. McCampbell and Geo. W. K. Love, after which all the men retired to the hall where they finished raising candidates at 6:30 the next morning.

During the evening an elegant and bountiful lunch was served by the newly made candidates, and the visitors departed the next morning declaring it to be one of the most enjoyable Masonic occasions they had ever experienced. The Grand Master remained over on Friday to assist the Royal Grand Matron in setting up a new chapter, which was organized with 27 members, two more than there was in the lodge.

Grand Matron summoned Mrs. Elizabeth Ward, Mrs. Nellie Walker and Mrs. Rosa Whitney from St. Joseph to assist in conferring the chapter degrees, and a most delightful evening was spent by all present. The chapter was named Victoria Clay Haley chapter and the lodge was named Cyrene lodge. These are the first fraternal organizations ever established in Maryville, which is one of the most beautiful towns in North Missouri.

The charter officers of the lodge were: Frank Smart, W. M.; A. M. Holmes, S. W.; James Palmer, J. W.; Wm. L. Vance, secretary; Thomas Jackson, treasurer.

The officers of the chapter were: Mrs. F. Smart, R. M.; Alfred Allen, R. P.; Mrs. J. Cookey, secretary; Mrs. James Palmer, treasurer.

He is a member of the Modern Woodmen. He never has run for public office.

A vote for George H. Edwards for mayor is a vote for cleaner streets, better city government, better equalization of the burden of taxes. The election of Edwards means that city improvements will go forward. But to make the result complete vote the Republican ticket straight.

"Did you ever notice that it is when the city is doing things that private enterprise makes most progress? The Republican party is constructive. The just administration has done practically nothing. It is time for a change."

tion to promote the work of his committee and the present fine results year 1916 a bigger year than 1915. Dr. L. E. Baile followed with a story of a man who, although without work for weeks and had a sick wife, had decided to sacrifice $5.00 to keep this work for the men and boys of the community going forward and upward. The secretary read the telegraphic pledges from Messrs. A. Frank Neal, of Salt Lake City and Chas. Heath, of Chicago, and also told of the sacrificial manner in which Mr. Sandy Draper and others were giving, especially calling attention to the liberal manner in which the young men of the association still in their "twenties" and younger, gave of their means to make the organization more complete and efficient, thus refuting the argument that the young men were not doing their share toward the perpetuation of the work.

After a prayer by President H. T. Kealing of Western University, a scene was enacted, only equalled once before in the history of the association and that at the time of the building campaign. It was at this point that the men were given an opportunity to subscribe. When the pledges were counted, together with those previously made, they aggregated $1,167.50. As only a portion of the membership had had the opportunity to subscribe, the committee of managers decided to ask for $1,500 instead of $1,200, that other improvements needed might be obtained.
